Florence, Auguſt 25.

WE learn from Lombardy, that the Duke of Modena is making the neceſſary Diſpoſitions to take Poſſeſſion of the Government of Milan, which Ceremony it is ſaid is fixed for next Month; and that on the 18th Inſtant, on his Return from Maſſa and Carrara, he had performed the Ceremony at Saſſolo, to inveſt the Hereditary Prince of Modena his Son with the Order of the Golden Fleece, lately conferred on him by the Emperor.

Stockholm, Aug. 25. The King's Journey for reviewing the Troops in the ſeveral Provinces, is fixed for To-morrow. It is aſſured that the Queen, whoſe Delivery is expected in about a Month, will lye-in at Drotningholm. There has been a Mutiny in the Regiment of Foot Guards, occaſioned by the Subalterns not paying due Reſpect to their ſuperior Officers, for which about 60 of them have been put under Arreſt.

Copenhagen, Sept. 1. Great Preparations are making at Friedensburg to celebrate, on the 4th Inſtant, with Splendor, the Anniverſary of the Birth of the reigning Queen. The two Ships of War, the Heron and the Chriſtianbourg, who were ſent ſome Time ago to the Coaſt of Africa, one under the Command of M. de Fontenay, the other of M. Lutrau, are returned from thence, and a few Days ago came into this Port, where they are ordered to be laid up. Lieutenant Colonel de Longueville, who was on board one of the above Men of War, has been ſeized by an expreſs Order from the King, and there is little Appearance that his Affairs will take a favourable Turn, it having been laid to his Charge, that he has greatly ſurpaſſed the Orders which his Majeſty gave him.

Copenhagen, Sept. 8. The 4th Inſtant, being the Anniverſary of the Queen of Denmark's Birth-Day, there was a numerous Court at Friedensburg, but no Promotions were made on that Occaſion. On the 6th Inſtant their Daniſh Majeſties, with the Princeſs Charlotte, left that Place, and after having dined with the Queen Dowager at Hirſcholm, arrived the ſame Evening at their Winter Reſidence, the Palace of Charlottenburg, in this City. The Prince Royal, and the young Princeſſes, returned hither likewiſe the ſame Evening, in perfect Health. The Queen Dowager is not expected till near the approaching Labour of the reigning Queen, whoſe Reckoning it is ſaid will be out about the End of this Month. The King is not yet ſettled in Town, his Majeſty propoſing to go every Monday Evening to Jagersburg, and to return the Thurſday following, as long as the Hunting Seaſon continues; ſo that the Council will be held for the future twice a Week, as the uſual Method is, when his Majeſty reſides in the Neighbourhood of this Place. Baron Wedel, who is in the Service of the King of Great Britain, as Elector of Hanover, being arrived here upon ſome private Family Affairs, was Yeſterday preſented by Mr. Titley, his Britannick Majeſty's Envoy Extraordinary at this Court, to his Daniſh Majeſty, and was received in a moſt gracious Manner.

Berlin, Sept. 4. The King has made ſeveral Military Promotions ſince the Beginning of this Month, and amongſt others has conferred on M. Malakowsky the Regiment of Huſſars, late under the Command of M. de Billerbeck, who, on Account of his great Age, has obtained Permiſſion to retire from the Service.

Turin, Sept. 5. Laſt Sunday Morning her Royal Highneſs the Dutcheſs of Savoy was ſafely delivered of a Princeſs, who was immediately chriſtened by the Cardinal de Lances, their Royal Highneſſes the Duke of Chablais, and the Princeſs Louiſa, ſecond Daughter to his Sardinian Majeſty, being the Sponſors. It was little expected that her Royal Highneſs would be brought to Bed ſo ſoon, as the Day before ſhe was at the publick Walk, as uſual, with the reſt of the Royal Family, and her Royal Highneſs continues perfectly well ſince her Delivery. On this Occaſion the Prince of Piedmont was ſent for from from Moncalier, where he has been this Summer for the Benefit of the Air; and his Royal Highneſs's Health is much mended. The Marqueſs de Cruſſole paſſed through this Place laſt Week in his Way to his Poſt at Parma; though his Stay here was only twenty-four Hours, he was preſented to his Sardinian Majeſty, and the reſt of the Royal Family. The Neapolitan Ambaſſador has declared his being appointed Ambaſſador to the French Court, and that he is to be ſucceeded here by M. Carraccioli, who is now Miniſter at Paris.

Hanau, Sept. 8. Our Serene Sovereign the Landgrave of Heſſe Caſſel, who has been to drink the Water at Schlangenbad, is returned in perfect Health.

Bruſſels, Sept. 10. The Syndycks of the different Bodies of Tradeſmen in this City, have had ſeveral Meetings to conſider of ſome new Propoſals which have been made to them by the Government. It is aſſured, that as ſoon as M. Neny is returned from the Court of Vienna, the Conferences, which had been opened here, will be reaſſumed, for regulating the Affairs of the Barrier and Tariff. The Viſcount d'Oudenaerde, Son to Count Lalaing, returned here ſome Days ago from Vienna, and is preparing to go to take Poſſeſſion of the Employment of Bayliff of Bruges, which the Empreſs Queen has been pleaſed to confer upon him.

Hague, September 11. We have received Advice from Soeſtdyck, that the firſt Princeſs Dowager of Orange arrived there Yeſterday in the Evening in perfect Health, and was received by their Royal and Serene Highneſſes with Marks of the moſt tender Affection. The Marqueſs de Bonac, Ambaſſador from France, received this Morning an Expreſs from his Court, with the agreeable News, that the Dauphineſs was happily delivered the 9th Inſtant of a Prince, who is to have the Title of Duke of Aquitaine.

Hague, Sept. 13. The States of this Province, who opened Yeſterday their ordinary Aſſembly, have continued this Day their Deliberations. The Deputies of the ſeveral Colleges of the Admiralty are likewiſe employed here in the Affairs of that Department. The Marqueſs de Bonac, Ambaſſador from France, delivered Yeſterday a Letter from the King his Maſter, to the Preſident of the Aſſemby of the States General, in which his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty notifies to their High Mightineſſes the Birth of a Prince, of which the Dauphineſs had been happily delivered on the 9th Inſtant. The Ambaſſador has been complimented on this Occaſion in the Name of the States General, who intend to write a Letter of Congratulation to his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty on this happy Event. The Baron de Groveſteins, who returned a few Days ſince from his Government of Ypres, ſet out this Morning for Soeſtdyck; and Baron de Schwartzenberg, Governor of Namure, who has been here for ſome Days, propoſes to ſet out To-morrow for his Government.

Whitehall, September 15, 1753.

Whereas between the Hours of Eight and Nine on Tueſday Night the 4th Inſtant, a ſudden Fire broke out in a Workſhop and Shed, belonging to Mr. Anthony Natt at Bethnall Green, whereby the ſaid Workſhop and Shed, with a great Quantity of Timber and Boards, to a conſiderable Value, were deſtroyed, and the neighbouring Houſes in Danger of being burnt down; and whereas there is great Reaſon to believe, that the ſame were wilfully ſet on Fire by ſome wicked and malicious Perſons; His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſon, or Perſons concerned therein, is hereby pleaſed to promiſe his moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Perſon who actually ſet Fire to the ſaid Premiſſes) who ſhall diſcover his or their Accomplices in the ſame.

HOLDERNESSE.

And as a farther Encouragement, I do hereby promiſe a Reward of Thirty Guineas to any Perſon or Perſons making ſuch Diſcovery as aforeſaid, to be paid upon the Conviction of the principal Offender or Offenders, by me, Antho. Natt.
